

IT'S THE FIELD OF DREAMS

You've probably heard about the fun to be had during an evening at Fifth Third Field. And for a couple of special nights this summer, the excitement doesn't have to end with the final at-bat.

In fact, when the game is over, your family is invited to take position in the outfield and stay there for the night. It's your chance to camp out in the outfield, right there where a game was just played. Because when the game ends, the sleepover begins.

For participating, your scout will earn a unique Mud Hens Sleepover patch. Plus, the Toledo Mud Hens organization will give back a percentage of all proceeds to your son's council.

These events sell out every year. And we have only 750 spots in our sleepover roster. So look inside to discover how to reserve your scout's place in the outfield.
